NARRATIVE:

Ronnie Jones is a documented gang member and has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 29. His convictions include multiple burglaries, grand theft property, multiple robberies, attempted robbery, accessory to a crime, trafficking cocaine, vehicle theft, under the influence of controlled substances, petty theft with multiple prior convictions, transporting and selling marijuana and violation of parole. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest, a 3 year term for burglary. Jones was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on September 13, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in August 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Jones qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for accessory is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang member status, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
